Some financial institutions (e.g. brokerage firms, custodians, mutual savings banks, credit unions, money market funds, etc.) also require "for further credit" information to correctly identify direct deposit accounts. If your financial institution requires this additional information, please list it below. If you are unsure if this additional information is required, please call your financial institution.

For further credit: _____

Direct Deposit Authorization

As the investor of record and authorized signatory of the account listed above, I hereby authorize Zanett, Inc., its affiliates, or its agents (collectively hereinafter as "Zanett") to deposit interest and principal payments owed to me, by initiating credit entries in the account to my financial institution listed on this form. Further, I authorize my financial institution to accept and to credit any credit entries initiated by Zanett to the listed account. In the event of an erroneous credit entry, I also authorize Zanett to debit the account for an amount not to exceed the original amount of the erroneous credit.

This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until Zanett and my financial institution have received written notice from me of its termination in such time and in such manner as to afford Zanett and my financial institution reasonable opportunity to act on it. In the event the listed account is closed I will promptly notify Zanett of an alternate account into which payments can be made.
